MARCH 2017

Karin's Horse Connection & Legacy Stables A Horse Lover's Playground!

It's starting to feel like spring! We have new kittens and the horses are starting to shed their winter hair which is a good sign that winter is almost over!

Programs really get going again in March! The Tiny Tot's and competitive vaulting teams will start practices on Thursday evenings. The Farm Work Therapy program starts back-up. And we are scheduling many birthday parties and new riders for lessons or one-time rides. So now's the time to call and make an appointment!

March 10-12 we will be at the Stallion Expo in Lansing. We will have a Beginning Vaulting clinic, several demonstrations, and the chance to try vaulting yourself in the youth area. This is an event that all horse lovers are sure to enjoy! Find more info Here!

Sign-Up Now! for Spring Break and Summer 'Own-A-Horse' Camp!! We have been adding to our curriculum and you do not want to miss out on all the horsey learning and fun to be had!

Save the date: April 15th we will have our annual Easter Egg Hunt! More info to come.

Karin's Tidbits

This month from Ralph Waldo Emerson. "Do not go where the path may lead, go instead where there is no path and leave a trail."
